PURPOSE: As an integral part of a comprehensive organizational communications package, this policy addresses the need for a Division of Children and Family Services (DCFS) Speakers Bureau which provides speakers to outside groups when requested and appropriate.

SCOPE: This policy applies to the members of the DCFS Speakers Bureau (SB).

POLICY

- A. The Division of Children and Family Services (DCFS) maintains a Speaker's Bureau comprised of DCFS staff that give presentations and educates the community about agency services and outcomes for children and families served.
- B. In accordance with the procedures listed below, the Speakers Bureau is managed by a designated coordinator.

PROCEDURES

- A. The Speakers Bureau Coordinator:
  - 1. Maintains an up-to-date roster of all volunteer speakers.
  - 2. Processes requests made by outside groups for a DCFS speaker.
  - 3. Develops a speaking engagement rotation, ensuring all appropriate requests are met.
  - 4. Provides written confirmation of assignments to the requestor and the speaker.
  - 5. Maintains a log of all requests that contains the following information:
    - Time, date, and location of the speaking engagement
    - Expected number of participants and requested topic/focus
    - Name of the requesting organization and audience
    - Contact person's name, phone number and e-mail address
    - Speaker assigned to each engagement
    - Evaluation forms/ speaker performance

6. Assists the speaker with preparations for educational presentations.
  7. Provides printed child welfare materials when requested.
  8. Provides up-to date information regarding the agency's mission, vision and values to be included in the Speakers Bureau Resource books.
  9. Holds meetings quarterly (at minimum).
- B. Speakers present the agency's message in a positive, appropriate and professional manner. All active members of the Speaker's Bureau are expected to maintain a Speaker's Bureau Resource Book with current materials that are referenced during presentations and/or provided as handouts to the audience and complete required training.
- C. Prospective new members
1. Need supervisor's approval; confirming current responsibilities.
  2. Must possess a minimum of 3 years child protection experience with DCFS.
  3. Must shadow a minimum of 4 presentations by different speakers.
  4. Are mentored and paired with an experienced SB member for their initial presentation.
- D. The content of all speeches given on behalf of DCFS is in accordance with specific guidelines. All speeches include:
1. Elaboration of the DCFS vision, values and mission statement;
  2. Explanation of work processes (dependent upon the purpose of the presentation);
  3. Clarification about when DCFS removes children from their homes; and
  4. Recruitment - the need for more foster/adoptive homes.
- E. After the presentation, the SB Coordinator will email the requestor the Speaker's Bureau Evaluation Form. Certificates of completion are not provided by DCFS; but if requested can be provided. Also, the assigned speaker may sign certificates provided by the requestor's organization to acknowledge participation.
